ANCIENT EGYPT · MAZE

Find the way to the house of life

Start at the top left and draw a line to the house of life at the bottom right without crossing a wall.

Did you know? A center of learning where scribes copied books and studied medicine, the stars and the calendar.

ANCIENT EGYPT

Archery range

Health

A yard with straw targets where archers practiced. Egyptian kings boasted about their skill with the bow.

ANCIENT EGYPT

Boat workshop

Work and shops

A shipyard where carpenters built the wooden boats that carried people and goods along the Nile.

ANCIENT EGYPT

Chariot arena

Places to meet

An imagined racing arena. Egyptians drove chariots in war, hunting and parades; races in a stadium came later, in Greek and Roman times.

ANCIENT EGYPT

Courtyard villa

Homes

A walled villa built around courtyards, with its own well, granaries and garden, like the houses of officials at Amarna.

ANCIENT EGYPT

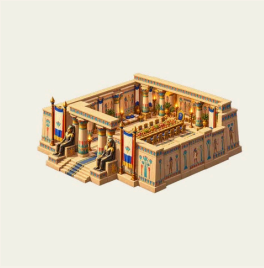

Family house

Homes

A farming family's house with a palm tree, a little garden and stairs to the roof.

ANCIENT EGYPT

Feast hall

Places to meet

A painted hall for banquets, with music, dancing, flowers and plenty to eat and drink.

ANCIENT EGYPT

Garden villa

Homes

A large villa with shady porches, palm gardens and lotus pools: a wealthy family's dream home.

ANCIENT EGYPT

Granary

Food

Work and shops

Domed mud-brick stores for grain. Full granaries meant bread and beer all year, and protection against a poor flood.

ANCIENT EGYPT

Great Library

Learning

The most famous library of the ancient world, founded in Alexandria around 300 BC with the dream of collecting every book.

NEWS REPORT ANCIENT EGYPT

Pyramid

The Great Pyramid was the tallest building on Earth for about 3,800 years. Write a news report about the day the builders set its very last stone.

POEM ANCIENT EGYPT

Great Sphinx

The Great Sphinx is a giant lion with a king's head, carved from the rock 4,500 years ago. Write a poem in which it tells what it has seen.

DESCRIBE ANCIENT EGYPT

Pharaoh's palace

Egyptians called the king's palace per-aa, the "great house." That word became our word "pharaoh." Describe one room of the great house.

STORY ANCIENT EGYPT

Granary

Full granaries meant bread all year, even after a poor flood. Write a story about a village that saves its grain for a hard year.

DIARY ANCIENT EGYPT

Scribe school

You are a student at a scribe school, learning to read and write. Write a diary entry about your hardest day and your best day.

CONVERSATION ANCIENT EGYPT

Market

At an Egyptian market, people traded goods for goods instead of paying with coins. Write a conversation in which you trade for something you need.

INVENT ANCIENT EGYPT

Nile sailing boat

Boats on the Nile sailed south with the wind and floated north with the current. Design a boat for a long river trip. What does it carry?

LETTER ANCIENT EGYPT

Mud-brick house

Most Egyptian farmers lived in houses of sun-dried mud brick. Write a letter to a friend far away about your home beside the Nile.

EXPLAIN ANCIENT EGYPT

Lifting lever

Builders moved giant stones with levers, ramps and sledges. Explain, step by step, how your team will move one huge stone to the building site.

OPINION ANCIENT EGYPT

Great Library

The Great Library of Alexandria dreamed of collecting every book. If you could save only three books for the future, which would you choose, and why?

ANCIENT EGYPT

Pharaoh

A king of ancient Egypt.

Archery range

ANCIENT EGYPT

Health

A yard with straw targets where archers practiced. Egyptian kings boasted about their skill with the bow.

Think about it: Why would an army need so many archers?

Boat workshop

ANCIENT EGYPT

Work and shops

A shipyard where carpenters built the wooden boats that carried people and goods along the Nile.

Think about it: Why might boats be so important in a country built along a river?

Building materials

ANCIENT EGYPT

Sandstone blocks, mud bricks, reeds and copper tools: what Egyptians built with.

Think about it: Why build temples of stone but houses of mud brick?

Camel rider

ANCIENT EGYPT

A camel with a rider and colorful saddle bags. Camels are perfect for deserts, but they came to Egypt late: for most of its history, donkeys carried the loads.

Think about it: Why would camels make desert travel easier?

Cat statue

ANCIENT EGYPT

A statue of a sitting cat, the sacred animal of the goddess Bastet. Egyptians loved cats, which kept homes and granaries free of mice and snakes.

Think about it: Why would a farming country value cats so much?

Chariot

ANCIENT EGYPT

A light two-wheeled chariot pulled by horses: the fastest way to travel in Egypt after about 1600 BC.

Think about it: Why would a light chariot be faster than a heavy one?
